Background

The Popcorn Kitchen business started its journey in 2012 popping corn at local food festivals in Surrey.

We remain a small, independent company run by Louise and the team, whose Mission is :

Creating Joyful Happy Moments Everyday 😃 🍿

We are also proud to be B Corp – achieved in June 2024

Focused on the premium retailers, speciality & fine food plus leisure. We offer a unique range of pack formats from snacking, sharing, everyday treat and to all those gifting occasions!

Launched Crunch Corn in 2026

What works – and what is hard

LESSONS FROM A SMALL, INDEPENDENT BRAND

- Works: seasonal launches with strong, giftable visuals
- Works: awards and B Corp as trust signals
- Works: email marketing, drives loyalty
- Works: PK online shop is the most profitable platform
- Hard: very seasonal demand – big peaks, quiet troughs
- Hard: rising cost of paid social for a small budget – agency fees
- Hard: standing out against big snack brands
- Hard: a small team doing everything, from content to ads

Over to you – project ideas

QUESTIONS WE WOULD LOVE YOU TO EXPLORE

- How well do our website and socials turn interest into sales?
- How can you make this year's ad content work harder, improve conversion ?
- What is the role of google and meta ads and how do we maximise performance?
- How do we drive ROAS to optimise our spend
- How do we drive loyalty?
- Which channels should we prioritise by brand ?
- How can we make more of seasonal moments without relying on paid ads?
- How could we use our quality and B Corp story, reviews and customer content online?
- What would make you buy – or share – Popcorn Kitchen / Crunch Corn ?
- How do we differentiate ourselves vs other gifting or snacking brands
